

EZ Budget Tracker Privacy Policy

Introduction

By using EZ Budget Tracker, you agree to terms and conditions listed in this policy. Please read carefully the following, it will help you to understand more about how this product works.

Terms and Conditions

This app was made for you to be able to track your expenses and your income. All the data is entered by the user and the user determine how accurate the data can be. To use this app, you will need to create an account and log in. I will never ask for credit card or bank account information. I will not be sharing any information to a third-party for advertisement or anything else. I cannot guarantee that the app will function the same way as you expected right now but by sharing your experience can help me fix issues and provide better experience for you.

Privacy Policy

A. Personally identifiable data:

- Email address
- Phone number
- Name
- Income and Expenses (This data is entered by the user)

B. Usage Data

- This app is not collecting any usage data

C. Analytics Data:

- We may collect certain information based on the usage of EZ Budget Tracker for the purpose of improving and creating new features. We may collect data such as user has signed in, user signed up, user delete an account etc. This data is not directly attached to the user, this is only looking at the overall usage of the app. Some of this data is processed by Firebase Analytics (which tracks certain events happening inside the app.)

All data is used to provide a better user experience. I need your name and email address to address to you whenever we send an email. The income and expenses data needs to be provided by the user, so you won't need to enter any credit card or bank account information.

Where are your data stored?

I used Firebase to store all of your data in a secure way.

Can I delete all my data?

You can delete your account through the app but we keep the data. However, you have the option of deleting all of your data by emailing us with the subject "Delete All My Data" and you need to provide the email used in the app for me to delete it.

If you have a question

Please don't hesitate to shoot me an email at josecodes20088@gmail.com. Another way to reach out to me is by going to josecodes.com

Changes and update

If EZ Budget Tracker makes changes to this policy, it will take effect immediately and will be posted in this page. Please we advice you to check this policy frequently for any updates.
